

CRISNAVAL S.L.U. was established in 2003 within the marine sector, our aim is to offer a quality services, comply with deadlines and to fulfill our customers' expectations.

CRISNAVAL offers the following services:

- Vessel's repair and maintenance.
- Naval Supply.
- Technical support, repair and maintenance by qualified personnel.

CRISNAVAL S.L.U. has developed and implemented a health & safety (H&S) at work, quality and environment integrated system, whose points are:

- To satisfy our clients complying with deadlines giving a high quality services of our human resources and our materials.
- To prevent and control environment negative impacts and eliminate hazards and reduce OH&S risks improving all aspects related to environment and H&S within our services.
- To comply with law and regulations as well as with clients requirements.
- To focus in continuously improve by planning and following up our quality system as well as implementing new objectives of H&S, quality and environment.
- To encourage the training of our employees and team work trough appropriate communication and instructing them where applicable in order to comply with our customers' requirements and with law.

Mr. Francisco Serrano Oncina.

Manager

Date: 23/10/2020